

Choice Novel Response Directions

Choose one of the following prompts. Your response should be about one page typed.

Response should be 12 font, double spaced. This response is due on the day of the test.

- How would you grade the quality of this writer? Write a review of the novel either encouraging or discouraging a potential reader to buy this book.
- Justify or question a major decision made by one of the main characters.
- Rewrite the ending from the point of the climax.
- Select a quotation and talk about its significance to the story, character, and/or your life.
- Explain the significance of the title, especially in relationship to the ending.
- Why is this novel considered timeless?
- Summarize your story writing in the voice of your favorite comedian. (Let me know who that is.)
- What are the causes or effects for a particular event or a character's action?
- How is the novel, character, or theme similar to another novel, character, or theme?
- What if _____ happened? What would be the consequences?
- How does the protagonist view the world? What would the protagonist be doing if he or she lived in our time? How is this different from how you view the world?
- How would you react in several situations if you were in the same situations as a character in your novel?
- Assume you are a casting director, and the story is being remade into a movie. Justify offering the parts to five well-known actors.
