

Free Write Poetry assignment

1. Tell me one thing about Emily Dickinson.
2. Write one sentence about Walt Whitman.

You will now write 4 short poems.

3. Raise one provocative question. Seek emotional candor. When Hemingway was asked about the secret to writing, he said, "Find one true thing and write it down."

The Rope

4. Observe the piece of rope closely; think in ways you've never thought before.

5. Listen to music. Let the music guide you to your unique way of seeing the world, write what you see and feel.

6. Embrace originality; resist the status quo.

